Andreas Berger

Andreas is an Austrian cinematographer living in Vienna and Hamburg.

He is one of the successful masters of his craft who managed to find the right balance between fictional work and advertising. He feels at home in both worlds as he commits his skills completely to the story.

His visual language is clear and always to the point and he has created some legendary films such as "Was tun wenn's brennt", "Spieltrieb" (both Gregor Schnitzler) as well as "Fuck you Goethe I" (Bora Dagtekin) and "Vincent will Meer" (Ralf Huettner). He received the Austrian Film Award "Goldener Kader" for "Untersuchung an Mädeln".

In advertising he has worked with international clients such as Audi, Mercedes, VW, Opel, Burger King, Ikea & Lufthansa, just to name a few.
