

Rupert Höller
Director

After starting with weird videos in the golden age of Youtube at age 14, Rupert Höller now directs multi award-winning music videos and commercials, somewhere between comedy and surrealism, always with a big heart for art direction.

His work won an UKMVA Newcomer Award, Silver at 1.4 Awards, Berlin Music Video Award, Austrian Music Video Award and has been selected at Slamdance, Raindance, Berlincommercial, Aesthetica Film Festival, Vimeo Staff Pick and Nowness. He is one of a few directors to have been selected with two music videos in the same year at Camerimage Festival 2022.

Apart from all that, he likes minimalistic photography and baking cinnamon rolls.

If you ask nicely, he'll bring one the next time you see him.
